

The State National Bank Makes Statement

TO OUR CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS:

The attitude of this Institution on the tobacco question having been misrepresented to the public through propaganda, we feel it is due you, our customers, who make up this Bank, that we state clearly our position. Let us state here that we can take care of your tobacco checks as well as any other bank.

We are interested in everything that affects you, because it in turn affects us. We consult with you, and have the reputation of taking care of your business needs in any emergency without dictating to you how you shall run your business. We think that you have enough good sense to do that. We have built up our resources so that we can take care of you during hard times as well as prosperous ones.

This Institution is a National Bank, operated under Government supervision, and in our dealings with our customers we treat them all alike without regard to their beliefs, creed or politics. To do otherwise would be unfair, as our depositors are made up of all classes.

In our business relations with you we are never influenced by any selfish or personal ambitions, and we want to see you get the top price for what you have to sell.

A bank that follows the straight marked line of banking—treating all alike, without favor to one over another—will never have any regrets, whatever the future may be.

Respectfully,

THE STATE NATIONAL BANK,

By

SLEUTHING USED BY LOCAL POLICEMEN IN GETTING MOONSHINE

Sixth Ward Grocer Arrested on the Charge of Selling Moonshine When Policeman Disguised as Farmer Makes Purchase.

Policemen Stewart and Carpenter resorted to a little detective work Friday evening in making a foundation for the arrest of G. W. Rudd, Sixth Ward grocer, on a charge of selling moonshine liquor. Rudd, who operates a grocery store in the old Bramble stand in East Second street, gave a cash bond of $100. Friday evening and was released for a hearing before Judge Harry C. Curran on next Tuesday afternoon.

Acting upon advice that Rudd had been selling moonshine liquor, Officer Harry Stewart donned overalls, an old hat and otherwise made himself appear a farmer. He entered Rudd's store and purchased a cigar. He then whispered to Rudd that he would like to get some liquor and after considerable persuasion Rudd consented to sell him a quart of liquor for $5, according to the policeman. Officer Stewart advised Rudd that he did not have that much money and finally Rudd agreed to sell him a half pint for $1.50. Officer Stewart says. After purchasing the half-pint, Officer Stewart left the Rudd store and was joined by Officer Carpenter, who was waiting on the outside. Both officers then entered the store and placed Rudd under arrest.

A full quart of moonshine liquor, which had not been opened, was found by the officers in the store.

DOG'S HEAD TO BE EXAMINED FOR THE BABIES.

The head of the dog which on Thursday evening bit little Mildred Winter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Winter, of the East End, has been sent to the state laboratory for examination to determine whether or not the animal was suffering from rabies. The little girl who was bitten is doing very satisfactorily.

POOLED TOBACCO TO BE RECEIVED HERE MONDAY

About One Hundred Wagon Loads of Pooled Tobacco to Be Delivered—Judge W. H. Rice First Farmer in With Crop.

The receipt of pooled tobacco will begin in Maysville Monday morning and it is expected that there will be quite a rush in the tobacco district of poolers anxious to see how the tobacco that is delivered grades up and the advances the farmers will receive on their crops.

Former County Judge W. H. Rice is the first farmer to deliver his crop. He was scheduled for the first day—Monday and to avoid the rush, he brought a large load in Friday night. Several other loads were delivered Saturday.

One hundred loads are registered for delivery Monday. Fifty of these loads will go to the home warehouse, twenty-five to the Farms and another twenty-five to the Central. Deliveries will continue daily until the whole crop is in. It is understood that growers have registered for as much as two weeks in advance for deliveries.

YOUTHS' BIBLE DRILL FEATURE AT REVIVAL

Drill of Children Who Have Been Studying Bible Under Mrs. Tuckerman Features Meeting Friday.

"The Savior that you need," was the basis for a very earnest sermon by Rev. Mullen at Christian church Friday evening. He used as his text parts of the eighth chapter of the gospel by Luke in which is recorded the raising from the dead the daughter of Jarius. A supreme faith in the master physician and divine healer was all that was needed to restore this maiden to her parents and this faith they had in the "Savior they needed."

A large audience was present and Mrs. Tuckerman gave a fine illustration of her work with the boys and girls in Bible study drill. Their answers came quick and sharp and showed splendid training under competent and patient leadership. Youthful impressions are not easily or quickly forgotten and these young folks will not soon forget these great Bible facts so indelibly written on their memories. Four hundred is the goal for Bible school Sunday. Come and enjoy all these services as you surely will.

LOCAL BAND GOING AFTER BIG CONTRACTS FOR FAIR SEASON

Prospects Good For Cardinal Band to Play This Season at Kentucky State Fair and Also at the Illinois State Fair.

The management of the Maysville Cardinal Band has already begun to lay its plans for the 1922 Fair season and Colonel J. Barbour Russell is going after bigger contracts. The great success the local band made last season at the Ohio State and Bluegrass Fairs has put it in line for even bigger things.

The two big contracts upon which the management is now working are the Kentucky State Fair and the Illinois State Fair and prospects are bright for both. No better attraction could possibly be signed by these two great fairs than the Cardinal Band for while they make music of the highest class, they are likewise a big feature attraction because of the age of the musicians.

Colonel Russell has just received this letter from the Secretary of the Kentucky State Fair:

"Dear Mr. Russell: 'I received your letter of January 23rd in regard to the Maysville Boys' Band. Please let me know your terms for playing at the 1922 Kentucky State Fair, September 11th to 16th, with a probable concert Sunday afternoon, September 10th.

"When I have this information before me I shall be pleased to bring the matter before our board, and hope to have the pleasure of having your band with us this fall.

"Yours truly,
"KENTUCKY STATE FAIR.
"By G. CARNEY CROSS, Sec."

COMPROMISE POPE IS NOW APPARENT.

Rome, Jan. 28.—A compromise candidate will be the next supreme pontiff of the Catholic church, it was believed today.

Italian cardinals, who probably will be in the majority, have divided into two groups, neither of which can swing the necessary majority.

The intransigents would elect Merry Del Val, opposed to reconciliation with Italy, while the group favoring Gasparri, cardinal camerlengo, would effect closer relations with the government.

If unable to elect Merry Del Val, the intransigents will throw their support to Cardinal Laurenti, who also opposes reconciliation with the state.

COMMISSIONERS APPROVE PROPOSED DRAIN LAW

County Commissioners Would Have Legislature Pass Bill Requiring Farmers to Keep Drains Clean.

At the meeting of the Mason County Commissioners held Saturday at the court house on motion of Commissioner Bramel, seconded by Commissioner Byar, it was ordered that the Mason Fiscal court endorse a bill requiring landowners to keep the drains open on the public roads abutting their land now before the state Legislature. The County Attorney was instructed to prepare a resolution to be forwarded to the Legislature to this effect.

The County Attorney was authorized to notify the owners of the Gray warehouse that their shed to warehouse is on the public highway and that the shed must be removed and upon failure of the owners to agree to such removal, the County Attorney was instructed to take such legal steps as necessary for such removal.

CAPITAL CUT OFF BY SEVERE SNOW STORM.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Washington was cut off from the outside world today so far as transportation was concerned by one of the heaviest snow storms in the history of the capital. No passenger trains have left Washington since midnight and with the snow continuing prospects of getting any trains out is said to be poor. Three trains have arrived since midnight, two from New York, long overdue, and one Baltimore and Ohio express from Cincinnati. Train service from the South, where snowstorms have been reported for two days and from which section the storm came, is suspended. Several trains from the South were reported stalled between Richmond and Washington with others being held at Richmond.

OUR POLICY:

And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

MR. BRYAN'S FUTURE.

The report that William Jennings Bryan contemplates running for United States Senator from Florida in competition with the incumbent, Park Trammell, is welcome. We did not know that Mr. Bryan finally and definitely had moved his voting residence from Nebraska to Florida. And we did not know that he still had political ambition. But evidently he has moved and evidently he is ambitious, which proves that he still is active and in good health.

And why should not Mr. Bryan be a man with a future? As statesmen go, he is not an old man. He was but thirty-six years old when he cast a metaphor at a Democratic national convention and it returned in the form of a Presidential nomination. He was but forty years old when he ran the second time, and but forty-eight when he ran in 1908. Keeping pace with the years, he is now only sixty-two. Among national figures, Mr. Bryan is only five years older than President Harding, two years older than Secretary Hughes, five years older than Senator Borah, three years older than Atlee Pomerene, and six years older than Hiram Johnson, all lively men of lively ambition. And compared with the real Elder Statesmen of the Senate, Mr. Bryan is a youth. Lodge and Kuntz Nelson belong almost to another generation.

So why should not William Jennings Bryan aspire? Certainly he is too young and too eloquent to be confined to teaching Sunday school in the shade of the sheltering palm. Of course, there is his record as Secretary of State, when he preferred to sound his own voice in Chautauqua tents to the silent toil of the chancellery. But in the Senate his troubadour would be permissible. More Senators do it on the side, and none of them so well as Mr. Bryan. And as between Mr. Bryan and Senator Trammell, we prefer Mr. Bryan. He plays the ukelele of eloquence far more diletely.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

WHITLEY'S HORROR.

The State Journal knows well enough that such a crime as the killing of a young woman by a drunken crowd firing into a residence is by no means reflective of general social conditions in Whitley county and that the horrible crime on "Tiny Branch" is as horrifying in Whitley as it is in Frankfort.

There is a great deal of pathos in the spectacle of the poor father of the woman who was killed digging deep into his pockets and offering from his meager means a small reward for the apprehension and conviction of the murderers.

We trust the apprehension and the conviction of the murderers will take place. Breathitt county was not long in convicting the first of the murderers who attacked the jail in Jackson and ruthlessly shot down women. It is not unlikely that Williamsburg will make as clean a record as Jackson in making.—Frankfort State Journal.

As Many a Maysville Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are weak. The urine is nature's index. Infrequent or too frequent passage. Nature tells you about it. Other disorders suggest kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for disordered kidneys. Ask your neighbor. Maysville people testify to their worth.

Charles Kennan, retired farmer, 81 Wood street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several different times within the last few years and never had them fail to do me good. My kidneys were in a mighty bad shape the first time I used them. The secretions I passed were bloody and burned terribly. My back kept me in misery during the time the attack lasted and I was feeling generally run down. I went to Wood &amp; Son's Drug Store and got a couple boxes of them. This medicine reached my case at once and cured me up in good shape. I have always relied upon Doan's ever since. I use a few now and then to regulate my kidneys and they never fail me." I didn't want to go home, but to walk miles and miles under the spell of what I had seen. I may seem a bit superlative in my appreciation of this film, but to me it amounts to a climax in the entire history of the screen. Last night marked a birthday! The eighth movie had come of age. Mr. Ingram, Miss Mathis, Mr. Ibanez, everyone in fact connected with the masterpiece, is to be congratulated to weave that enormous story into a tapestry the size of a motion picture screen, and at the same time to keep its integrity of form, purpose and beauty in artistry raised to the nth power. I'm a rather querulous picture-goer, not half satisfied with conditions, but seeing 'The Four Horsemen' has renewed my faith in the enormous potentialities of the screen."

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanné Price

New York —Vice president of great banks and trust companies in New York have come to be so numerous— to come in flocks, as it were—that the following story from the South Carolina golf links is getting entire appreciation here. Two men fell in with each other playing on those links last week, according to a letter from another New Yorker there, and found that they were both from this city. They got to arguing about some financial question and disagreed violently. Finally one drew himself up and said, "I ought to know what I'm talking about. I'm vice president of the Guaranty Trust Company." "Is that so?" replied the other. "So am I." And he was.

We've had jewels from European royalty, tapestries from bankrupt monarchies and art treasures from everywhere delivered into the possession of this country since the war. But not until the other day were we asked to take any royal elephants. Somehow elephants don't seem offhand to be the most — well, negotiable — things in the world. But King Boris of Bulgaria is harder up than usual and the royal zoo is eating its heads off, so he naturally thought of us. Dr. William T. Hornaday, director of the Bronx zoo here in New York has therefore been approached on the subject. "The king is much attached to his elephants and calls them his 'little pets,'" read the communication received by Dr. Hornaday. "But they eat too much." Unfortunately, the Bronx zoo isn't in the market just now for royal elephants.

—NY—
Elsie Janis is back with us and with her "gang." It is the same "gang" of soldier singers and comedians which she got together during the war, but now their uniforms are laid away and they still make good with their voices and their acting. Miss Janis has doubled the number of chorus girls with the show to make up for the lack of military atmosphere. Her "imitations" are almost cleverer than ever, particularly that of Ethel Barrymore.

—NY—
I'll wager that not even Los Angeles can beat this! The first visible masculine straw hat of the season of 1922 made its appearance down town the other day. No one succeeded in identifying him; although there were all sorts of rumors — that he was a bootlegger in a new badge of the order, that he had lost a bet on his New Year's resolutions, and everything else the mind of the unimaginative city man could conjecture. But he passed serenely through Rectory street undisturbed and with all appearance of being unconscious.

—NY—
The news that Dockstader's minstrels again may take the road is one of the ripples of excitement along Broadway. Harland Dixon, who is now one of the dancers in "Good Morning, Dearie," and who spent his early career with Dockstader, is all ready to pack up and catch the train with the troupe if the story proves true, and so are a good many other singers and dancers whose audiences have forgotten that they ever paraded the streets in blackface.

—NY—
People do spend their week-ends in all sorts of queer places and ways, but I am sure August Schmeckerger, 122 Franklin street, is establishing a precedent. He is spending his in jail. Five days he is out and goes about his business and to his home. Then every week-end he hops down and goes to jail. He is to do this until he has spent altogether 30 days behind the bars. He was arrested for flirting, and when his wife appeared in his behalf and said that even if he did flirt, she and the children needed his earnings and that after all he didn't take time from his work to flirt, the judge made this little week-end arrangement.

—NY—
Never, probably, in all its history did Manhattan Island ever see such a chase as tore across its breadth the other day. A steer got loose from the slaughter house of Joseph Stern and Son, and all the policemen and motorists and small boys along the streets were unable to stop him until he had completely crossed Manhattan, from Eleventh avenue to First.

—NY—
DO THEY GET THAT WAY.
"What's the connection between long hair on a man and eccentricity?" asked Williams.
"I don't know," said Jackson, "but I've often wondered if they wore long hair because they are eccentric or whether they get eccentric by wearing their hair long."

—NY—
REASON WHY.
"Don't you always clean up on Saturday night for Sunday?" asked the unmarried man.
"No; my wife saves me the trouble and cleans me out every Saturday," answered the married man.

PICKPOCKETS UNION ENTERS ITS PROTEST.

"We, the International Union of Trained Pickpockets, protest against the small amounts which members of the public carry in their purses and pocketbooks. Unless they are increased we shall declare a general strike."

In America this crisis has not been reached, but if that idea of the pickpockets of Egypt spreads it may be expected soon. The pickpockets of that part of the world have formed themselves into a union.

Recently a prominent Armenian in Cairo reported to the police that his pocketbook, containing a considerable sum, had been stolen. The secretary of this remarkable union thereupon wrote to one of the papers, alleging that the sum stated by the Armenian to have been in the pocketbook was greatly in excess of the actual amount.

Pocketpicking not providing enough profit, members of the union have extended their operations to railway pilfering. They made investigations concerning the most valuable goods usually transported. Classifying the results, they proceeded to manufacture imitations of the packages, boxes, tins and so on.

The State Railways in Egypt are never in a hurry to deliver goods, and loaded trucks are left frequently on the sidings overnight. This was putting temptation in the path of the union, and under cover of darkness the men abstracted their requirements and enclosed dummies.

OFFICERS DESTROY FIVE BARRELS MASH

Deputy Sheriff and West Union Marshal Failed To Get the Owner.

West Union, Ohio, Jan. 27. — Deputy Sheriff A. H. Meeker and Marshal D. N. Williams made a moonshine raid in Jefferson township last Thursday afternoon and returned to West Union with about two gallons of White Mule but without its owner, who succeeded in giving them leg bail.

The scene of the raid was on the headwaters of Haw Fork, Churn Creek precinct. In an old dilapidated building on a section of land said to belong to a party in Cincinnati, the officers found part of a dismantled still, five barrels of peach mash and several bottles of the finished product. The mash was poured out of the barrels by the two officers.

The owner of the still, who came out of the building just as the officers approached, took to his heels and made his escape.

Lillard, charged with willful murder. The verdict was given at 9:20 o'clock Friday night, and a penalty of fifteen years in the penitentiary was the sentence pronounced. Lillard was charged with cutting the throat of his wife, Mrs. Bertha Lillard, with a razor at her home, 203 West Thirty-fourth street, Latonia, on the night of June 22, 1921. Afterward he attempted suicide, the police say.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 27. — A motion for a new trial was filed in Federal Court today by Judge E. C. O'Rear, counsel for the estate of Judge W. A. ## SPENT HALF HER TIME IN BED

Farmer's Wife Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman

Carter's Creek, Tenn. — "Three years ago I was almost an invalid. I spent half of my time in bed, being afflicted with a trouble which women of a certain age are apt to have. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a well woman now and have been for two years. I can work as well as any one who is younger and as I am a farmer's wife I have plenty to do for I cultivate my own garden, raise many chickens and do my own housework. You may publish this letter as I am ready to do anything to help other women as I have been so well and happy since my troubles are past." — Mrs. E. T. GALLOWAY, Carter's Creek, Tenn.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with some female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain. If you find it hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without ambition and out of sorts generally, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. We believe it will help you greatly, for it has helped others.
